

FCC - It is ridiculous to take away a service that people PAY FOR!! Satellite radio is almost completely commercial free and offers features that broadcast radio does not!! Taking away traffic and weather reports is ridiculous - the programming on am radio sucks! at least it is clear and up to date on XM - Id rather listen to XM for one day for the rest of the year then listen to the regular radio and commercial crap that gets played